

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING
COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

DAVID GILBERT SAFFRON
a/k/a DAVID GILBERT and
CIRCLE SOCIETY, CORP.,

Defendants.

Case No.

2:19-cv-01697-KJD-DJA

[PROPOSED] EX PARTE STATUTORY RESTRAINING ORDER

Plaintiff, Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“Commission” or “CFTC”), has filed a Complaint for Injunctive Relief, Restitution, Disgorgement and Civil Monetary Penalties, and has moved, pursuant to Section 6c(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act (the “Act”), 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) (2012), and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (“Fed. R. Civ. P.”) 65(b), for an ex parte statutory restraining order enjoining David Gilbert Saffron a/k/a David Gilbert (“Saffron”) and his business entity, Circle Society, Corp. (“Circle Society”) (collectively, “Defendants”), from destroying, altering, or disposing of, or refusing to permit authorized representatives of the Commission to inspect and copy any books or records or other documents, including electronically stored information (“ESI”), and further enjoining Defendants from withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating, or disposing of any funds, assets or other property. The Court has considered the pleadings, declarations, exhibits, and memorandum filed in support of the Commission’s motion for a statutory restraining order, and finds that:

1. This Court possesses jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (2012) (codifying federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (2012) (providing that U.S.

1 district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by
2 any agency expressly authorized to sue by act of Congress). In addition, Section 6c of the Act, 7
3 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2012), provides that U.S. district courts possess jurisdiction to hear actions
4 brought by the Commission for injunctive relief or to enforce compliance with the Act whenever
5 it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or
6 practice constituting a violation of any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order
7 thereunder.

9 2. Venue lies properly with this Court pursuant to Section 6c(e) of the Act, 7 U.S.C.
10 § 13a-1(e) (2012), because Defendants resided and transacted business in this District, and
11 certain transactions, acts, practices, and courses of business alleged in this Complaint occurred,
12 are occurring, or are about to occur in this District.

13 3. There is good cause to believe that from at least December 2017 through the 14 present (the “Relevant Period”), Saffron has fraudulently solicited and accepted at least $11
15 million worth of Bitcoin (“BTC”) and United States Dollars (“USD”) (BTC, together with USD, 16 “funds”) from no fewer than fourteen members of the public to participate in an unregistered
17 commodity pool (the “Pool”). Beginning on or about September 6, 2018 through the present,
18 Saffron, individually and as principal and agent of Circle Society, has fraudulently solicited
19 members of the public to participate in a commodity pool operated by Circle Society. Through 20 the use of in-person meetings, word-of-mouth, instant messaging services such as Telegram,
21 podcasts, and websites operated by Saffron, Defendants solicited actual and prospective
22 participants to pool their funds with that of other participants for the purported purpose of trading
23 off-exchange binary option contracts on foreign currency (“forex”) and cryptocurrency pairs,
24
26
27
28

1 among other things. Defendants made omissions and misrepresentations of material facts,
2 including guaranteeing returns of up to 300% in three weeks.

3 4. Defendants misappropriated participants' funds by soliciting funds for trading and
4 then holding participants' funds in Saffron's personal E-Wallet instead of segregating the funds
5 in a pool account and using them for trading on behalf of the Pool. The Bitcoin tendered by 6 participants to Defendants were held in Saffron's personal E-Wallet and were never placed in 7 any cryptocurrency or other trading accounts for the benefit of the Pool. Similarly, at least some 8 of the USD tendered by participants to Defendants were converted to Saffron's personal use and 9 not placed in any cryptocurrency or other trading accounts for the benefit of the Pool.
10

11 Defendants also misappropriated some portions of participants' funds by providing Bitcoin to 12 certain participants as purported trading "profits," in order to create the illusion that the Pool was 13 trading, and trading profitably.

14 5. Defendants did not disclose to actual and prospective participants that they
15 misappropriated and used their funds for Saffron's personal use.
16

17 6. Throughout the Relevant Period, Saffron, individually and as principal and agent
18 of Circle Society, knew that he was making omissions and misrepresentations to actual and 19 prospective participants when he touted his trading experience and guaranteed returns of up to 20 300%. In reality, Saffron knew or acted with reckless disregard of the fact that binary options
21 trading on cryptocurrency and forex is risky, with no guaranteed returns. As the holder of the E-
22 wallet and BTC addresses used to collect funds from participants and four known cryptocurrency
23 trading accounts, Saffron had personal knowledge of the amount of funds accepted from 24 participants, the disposition of those funds, as well as the absence of trading on behalf of 25 participants as promised. Finally, Saffron knew or acted in reckless disregard of the facts when 26
27
28

1 he failed to disclose that neither he nor Circle Society were registered with the Commission as
2 required, and Defendants were therefore operating an unlawful business enterprise.

3 7. At no time did Defendants operate the Pool as a legal entity separate from that of 4 the pool operator, nor did Defendants ever open a pooled trading account for the benefit of 5 participants. Defendants also commingled the property of the Pool with Saffron's own personal 6 funds.

8 8. During the Relevant Period, Saffron, without registering with the Commission as 9 a commodity pool operator ("CPO"), solicited, accepted, and received funds from the public
10 while engaged in a business that is of the nature of an investment trust, syndicate, or similar form
11 of enterprise, for the purpose of, among other things, trading in commodity futures contracts.
12 During the Relevant Period, Saffron failed to register with the Commission as a CPO.

13 9. From September 6, 2018 through the present, Circle Society, without registering
14 with the Commission as a CPO, solicited, accepted, and received funds from the public while 15 engaged in a business that is of the nature of an investment trust, syndicate, or similar form of 16 enterprise, for the purpose of, among other things, trading in commodity futures contracts. From 17 September 6, 2018 through the present, Circle Society failed to register with the Commission as 18 a CPO.

20 10. From September 6, 2018 through the present, Saffron, without registering with the 21 Commission as an associated person ("AP") of Circle Society, solicited, accepted, and received
22 funds for participation in the Pool. From September 6, 2018 through the present, Saffron failed
23 to register with the Commission as an AP of a CPO.

24
25 11. By virtue of this conduct and the conduct further described herein, Defendants
26 engaged, are engaging, or are about to engage in acts and practices in violation of Sections 4c(b),
27

1 4m(1), and 4o(1)(A)-(B) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 6c(b), 6m(1), and 6o(1)(A)-(B) (2012), and
2 Commission Regulations 4.20(a)(1), (b) and (c), and 32.4, 17 C.F.R. §§ 4.20(a)(1), (b), (c), 32.4
3 (2019). In addition, Saffron has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in acts and practices
4 in violation of Section 4k(2) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6k(2) (2012).

5 12. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the 6 Court's ability to grant effective final relief for participants in the form of monetary redress will
7 occur from the sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposition by Defendants of assets or records
8 unless Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of the Court.

10 13. There is good cause for the Court to impose a restraining order prohibiting
11 Defendants and their agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and other persons who are in active 12 concert or participation with them, from withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating, or 13 disposing of any funds, assets, or other property owned, controlled, managed, or held by or on 14 behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants.
15

16 14. There is good cause for entry of an order prohibiting Defendants and their agents, 17 servants, employees, assigns, attorneys, and persons in active concert or participation with the 18 Defendants, including any successors or assigns thereof, from destroying records and/or denying
19 agents of the Commission access to inspect and copy records to ensure that Commission
20 representatives have immediate and complete access to all such books and records.
21

22 15. Absent the entry of this statutory restraining order, Defendants are likely to 23 dissipate or transfer assets and destroy business records.

24 16. This is a proper case for granting a statutory restraining order ex parte to preserve
25 the status quo, protect public customers from loss and damage, and enable the Commission to 26 fulfill its statutory duties, therefore the Court orders as follows:
27
28
